

Keating, John [Chicago, IL]

1928

6740 Bennett Avenue
Chicago, Illinois
March 7, 1928.

Howland Wood
American Numismatic Society
Broadway at 156 th Street
New York, City.

Dear Mr Wood;

For the past three years my hobby has been the collection of early American coins. Just recently I learned through a friend that you supplied information on coins. So I am writing to ask you if you would kindly send me some information on American coins.
You may rest assured that any information
I receive will be highly appreciated. Thanking you for your trouble.

Yours sincerely,
John Keating.

Chicago Coin Club

R E Davis Secy.

1708 E 69th Chicago.

9th March, 1928

Mr. John Keating,
6740 Bennett Avenue,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:

Probably the best way for you to acquaint yourself with early American coins would be through the priced catalogues of auction sales held by various dealers. I am sending you a list of such dealers. A few books have been prepared on early American coins, and I think the dealer that has the best supply is Gutttag Brothers. If you are interested in collecting coins you really should become affiliated with one or two numismatic societies. There is the Chicago Coin Club, Mr. R. E. Davis, Secretary, 1708 East 69th Street, Chicago, and the American Numismatic Association, Harry Nilsen, Secretary, 535 North Sanger Avenue, Chicago. I am enclosing an application blank to the latter.

Very truly yours,

Curator